SAGE FAMILY SOUTHEAST ASIAN STUDIES SCHOLARSHIP

Application Deadline: February 29, 2024

Please consider applying for this scholarship which provides $4,000 for summer or academic year travel to Laos and Southeast Asia.

Students who apply may select the timetable for their travel, either summer 2024 or the following academic year, 2024-25.

The purpose of the scholarship is to support travel and study abroad in Laos and/or any of the following countries: Thailand, Indonesia, Cambodia, Vietnam, and the Philippines. It is uniquely available to undergraduate students at Arizona State University. The Sage Family Southeast Asian Studies Scholarship is a tribute to William W. Sage's interest in and lifelong work in Laos and Southeast Asia and is provided in loving memory and honor of his parents, Lloyd G. and Twyla M. Sage.

To apply for the scholarship, please read the eligibility requirements carefully. Recipients must manage their own arrangements for travel and accommodations. Completion of the application form must ensure the applicant meets the eligibility requirements.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Students of all majors are invited to apply. Some prior study of Southeast Asia at ASU is preferred, but not required.
- Applicants must be enrolled as a full-time, undergraduate student at the time of application and have completed at least 56 semester hours or four (4) semesters of study prior to taking up the scholarship.
- Applicants agree by signing the application form that, if awarded the scholarship, they will: 1) submit, within three months of completing the scholarship, a trip report of approximately six pages (c2,000 words) reflecting on their travel and experience or, alternatively, a video report of equal substance; and 2) make at least one public or classroom presentation at ASU about their experiences.
- Applicants agree by signing the application form to: 1) apply for and receive a Passport; 2) abide by the laws of the countries in which they travel; 3) comply with the Arizona Board of Regents Student Code of Conduct; and 4) enroll in the Smart Traveler Enrollment Program (STEP) recommended by the ASU Study Abroad Office, <https://studyabroad.asu.edu/> and follow the advisories published by STEP; possess/acquire travel insurance.
- Financial need is not required. It is suggested that students inquire at the ASU Financial Aid Office if there is a question as to whether receiving this scholarship will impact their financial aid.

Application

1. The application form must be fully completed.
2. The applicant's name should appear at the top of each page.
3. A copy of a transcript that includes grades from your most recently completed semester (unofficial copies are acceptable).
4. Two (2) letters of recommendation from professionals/professors who can attest to the potential for success in academics at ASU and the character of the applicant. Each letter should be written on letterhead stationery and submitted by email to the email address below.
5. Transcripts and letters of recommendation must also adhere to the deadline of February 29, 2024.
